

Mr. STRIPLING. Before or after.

Mr. HISS. I think I drove him from the Hill to the apartment.

Mr. STRIPLING. Did you ever take any trips out of town with George Crosley?

Mr. HISS. No; I don't think so.

Mr. STRIPLING. Did you ever take him to Pennsylvania?

Mr. HISS. No. I think I once drove him to New York City when I was going to make a trip to New York City anyway.

Mr. NIXON. Was Mrs. Hiss along?

Mr. HISS. That I wouldn't recall. She may have been. I think I may have given him a lift when I went to New York.

Mr. STRIPLING. Did you go to Paoli?

Mr. HISS. If Mrs. Hiss was along; yes.

The CHAIRMAN. Route No. 202?

Mr. HISS. Route 202 goes through that part of Pennsylvania, and that is the route we would take.

Mr. NIXON. Did you ever drive to Baltimore with Crosley?

Mr. HISS. I don't recall it. I think he moved to Baltimore from here, as a matter of fact, but I don't recall that I ever drove him.

Mr. NIXON. How did you know that?

Mr. HISS. I think he told me when he was pulling out. He was in my apartment until the lease expired in September.

Mr. NIXON. What year?

Mr. HISS. I think it was September 1935 and I think I saw him several times after that, and I think he had told me he moved from here to Baltimore.

Mr. NIXON. Even though he didn't pay his rent you saw him several times?

Mr. HISS. He was about to pay it and was going to sell his articles. He gave me a payment on account once. He brought a rug over which he said some wealthy patron gave him. I have still got the damned thing.

Mr. NIXON. Did you ever give him anything?

Mr. HISS. Never anything but a couple of loans; never got paid back.

Mr. NIXON. Never gave him anything else?

Mr. HISS. Not to my recollection.

Mr. NIXON. Where is he now?

Mr. HISS. I have no idea. I don't think I have seen him since 1935.

Mr. NIXON. Have you ever heard of him since 1935?

Mr. HISS. No; never thought of him again until this morning on the train.

Mr. STRIPLING. You wouldn't say positively George Crosley and this person are the same?

Mr. HISS. Not positively.

Mr. STRIPLING. You would not say positively?

Mr. HISS. I think they are not. That would be my best impression from the photographs.

In thinking this morning what I thought was that Crosley is the only person I know who has been in my house who knows the lay-out of any house or apartment I lived in.

Mr. NIXON. He knows the lay-out of only one house?
