

0:18:57 A. I can not say anything..

0:19:00 Q. As to gifts - what did you usually give the agents as gifts?

0:19:04 A. Usually as gifts we would give things that can not be exposed, strike an eye - since an agent would explain such a gift to his family or friends. Usually it can be a watch - a very expensive watch - Swiss that he might buy himself.

0:19:43 Would you be able to present a carpet to an agent?

0:19:47 Me? Never.

0:19:49 And have you heard of such gifts?

0:19:51 A. I would have, in general, considered it such an inappropriate and unusual gift that I would not even have thought in this direction.
