

Wadleigh

Q Now, you are referring to this portion of your December 6 statement, and I'm quoting from page 2:

"Around that time my sympathies were strongly leftist."

A Yes, I think that's it.

Q (Cont'g reading:)

"I had previously been a Socialist in the sense that I was an admirer of the British Labor Party, of the German Socialist Democratic Party, and for a while was a member of the Socialist Party in the United States."

Is that the part?

A I think that's it.

Q (Cont'g reading:)

"The failure of the Social Democrats in Germany to offer effective resistance against Hitler, the growing power of the Nazis in Germany, of the ruling group in Japan, and the Fascists in Italy seemed to me thoroughly alarming, and so far as I could see, the Communists and Soviet Union were offering the only effective opposition."

I think that about completes your statement of the motives.

A Yes.

BY THE JURY:

Q Were any of the papers you gave microfilmed in that group? A Some of the papers in the microfilms -- from the microfilms have been shown to me by the FBI, and there is one paper dealing with a possible trade agreement with Germany which might have been supplied by me. Unfortunately the lapse of time is so long that I am not able to state definitely whether or not I submitted that.

Q Mr. Wadleigh, I would like to ask you: this materi
