

finished, because Timmy had his quarters up there. I don't recall having been in the attic.

Q Do you remember any of the furnishings of the Volta Place house?

A No, I cannot say that I do. I presume they were the same ones that were in the 30th Street house, for the most part.

Q You remember that you told us that that rug you gave Mr. Hiss was never in sight at the 30th Street house.

A That is true.

Q Was it on the floor at Volta Place?

A I don't recall whether they had put it down at the Volta Place house, or not.

Q Can you remember anything else about the interior of the Volta Place house?

A No, I don't think I do.

MR. McLEAN: Have you now got the bird books that we were talking about a few minutes ago?

MR. CLEVELAND: Mr. Marbury has them.

MR. McLEAN: May I see them a moment, please?
